THE ROLE OF THE GENERAL PUBLIC IN THIS TRANSITION.

(See City Attorney Summary of Strong Mayor form of Government; RFQ- Consulting Services for the City of San Diego Strong Mayor Form of Government Transition Process; Strong Mayor Charter Amendment – Strikeout/Underline Version; League of Women Voters’ February 14, 2005, letter)

Public Comment received by: Norma Damashek, representing the League of Women Voters:

Organized presentation regarding the need for more public participation in the Strong Mayor Transition Process. Recommended forming a Citizens Strong Mayor Transition Team to advise the City Council throughout this process.

Public Comment received by: Adrian Kwiatkowski, representing the Strong Mayor & Council Research Institute, a division of the Monger Company: Stated that San Diego is the largest municipality to make the switch from a City Manager form of government to Strong Mayor Form of Government and that this issue is starting to be analyzed at strongmayorcouncil.com

ACTION: Motion by Councilmember Maienschein, second by Councilmember Atkins that the issue regarding the process for adopting an independent budget analyst position be brought forward at an upcoming GE&O meeting. The Committee should consider all issues raised in Councilmember Maienschein’s January 19, 2005, memo regarding the Office of the Independent Budget Analyst, how the position will be funded in the upcoming budget, and the need for a legislative analyst position(s). Also, that an Ad-Hoc Citizens Advisory Committee be formed to report back to the GE&O Committee on a periodic basis regarding concerns raised by the public during the Strong Mayor Transition process. This Committee will be composed of at least nine members consisting of one representative from each Council District, selected by that district’s Councilmember and one representative selected by the Mayor’s Office. The City Attorney’s Office and City Manager’s Office should support the Committee.

A special GE&O Committee meeting should be held to confirm the membership of the Committee.
