"SEC. 95.0136 STREET BANNERS OR DECORATIONS

No person shall construct or install street banners or decorations over public property except as herein permitted and only after the issuance of a valid permit therefor.

(a) The applicant for such permit shall pay an application fee of $20.00, $10.00 of which shall be refunded if no permit is issued. Such permit is granted upon the condition that the permittee shall indemnify and save free and harmless The City of San Diego against any of the liabilities mentioned in this section. The applicant shall file with the City a policy of insurance against public liability and property damage with an insurance carrier satisfactory to the City. Such public liability and property damage insurance policy shall provide coverage in amounts of not less than $100,000 for one person injured in one accident; not less than $300,000 for more than one person injured in one accident; and not less than $25,000 with respect to any property damage in any one accident; and said policy shall be maintained in full force and effect until such time as all banners, decorations, equipment, wiring and supports have been removed as determined by the Inspection Department. The requirements of this section as to the amounts covered in the policy and as to the maintenance of insurance shall not be construed as limiting in any way the extent to which the permittee may be held responsible for the payment of damages to persons or property.

(b) The City Manager may issue the permit for decorations in accordance with the conditions herein imposed. The permit shall state the period during which such decorations may be maintained and shall state the final date on which such decorations must be removed.

(c) Applications for permits shall be made in the following manner:

1. A written application, on prescribed forms, shall be submitted to the Director of the Inspection Department.

2. The applicant shall furnish a description of the decorations to be installed, together with sketches, diagrams or other information required by the Director of the Inspection Department.

3. The application shall be submitted by the ~~contractor~~ sponsoring group or organization or a contractor engaged to install the decorations, and shall also be countersigned by an officer of the sponsoring group or organizations."
